Clients Rank Citi Top 2016 Asia Pacific Fixed Income Bank According to Greenwich Associates

Hong Kong – Buy-side investors have granted Citi the top market share and quality awards in the 2016 Asia Fixed Income study conducted by Greenwich Associates with Citi claiming 1st place as the Greenwich Share Leader in Overall Asian Fixed Income (ex-Japan).

Greenwich Associates interviewed 815 fixed income investors. According to the study, while Citi has always been a formidable player in the Asian fixed income market, the bank has turned in an exceptional performance over the past year. Greenwich added, “Citi has been a powerhouse across products over the last year.”

The study added that Citi has pulled ahead of the field for overall market share and has gained market share by deepening relationships with existing clients. Citi was ranked first for Asian G3 bonds, G7 secondary investment grade products, G10 Government Bonds and tied first on Asian credit products and Interest Rate Derivatives.

“We are proud to have been recognized as Asia’s leading fixed income bank and I would like to thank all our clients who place their trust in Citi, day in, day out. Citi’s performance is testament to our business model and our focus on supporting our clients. We are growing market share amid the rapidly changing competitive environment and we are committed to building further on this success. Citi will continue to invest in the region across our franchise in areas including new product capabilities, sales and research,” said Julia Raiskin, Head of Investor Sales Asia Pacific.
